

THE FRENCH BACCALAUREATE

HOW THE OPTIONS AND SPECIALTIES CHOICES WORK

The students of Lycée Claudel, from Seconde to Terminale, prepare for the French Baccalaureate exams. This diploma, internationally recognized for its rigor and academic excellence, marks the end of secondary school and gives access to higher education.

		SECONDE	PREMIÈRE	TERMINALE
MANDATORY	COMMON TEACHING	French Mathematics English and Spanish Physics-Chemistry Life and earth sciences History geography Moral and civic education Physical and Sports Education Economic and Social Sciences Digital sciences and technology	French History geography Moral and civic education English and Spanish Physical and Sports Education Science education	Philosophy History geography Moral and civic education English and Spanish Physical and Sports Education Science education
	SPECIALTIES		Three choices among the following teachings Mathematics Physics-Chemistry Life and earth sciences Economic and Social Sciences History, geography, geopolitics Humanities, Literature, and philosophy Audiovisual cinema Digital and Computer Science	Two choices based on those chosen in Première In Terminale, students choose to pursue two of the three speciality teachings chosen in Première.
OPTIONAL	OPTIONS	Options offered at Lycée Claudel
		Latin International Track (+3.5h) Audio-visual Cinema	Latin International Track (+3.5h) Audio-visual Cinema	Latin Audio-visual Cinema Expert mathematics or complementary mathematics